

IN NEED FOR REVENGE.

East Portion of Carrollton, Ga., Wiped Out by Fire.

Asbury Gentry Wrecks
jeance on His Prosecutors.

At a Dynamiter and Escaped order Almost Fulfilled.

ROLLTOWN, Ga., April 4.—At midnight the people were awakened by a light, before it was quenched, and the entire business portion of the town was consumed.

At about 11 o'clock the alarm was given, but no building left standing public square.

Investigation proved that the fire was of incendiary origin, and there was but one person who could have been the perpetrator. That was the notorious Asbury

Gentry, who belongs to a respectable family of county members of which have frequently held important offices and many of them prominent to-day. Years ago he ran away to Texas, where he developed a career of horse-stealing which led him to the county jail.

He was found near Villa Rica. The murderer was traced to Asbury Gentry. While in jail he was investigating the crime in which the members slept, in which was blown up by dynamite and others were badly shaken up.

Gentry was tried, convicted and sentenced to death. For safe-keeping he was taken to the Atlanta jail, from which he escaped about two months ago.

He left before he wrote a letter in which he told the judge and solicitor that he would kill the judge and solicitor who had tried him and that he would burn down the town of Carrollton.

Week the solicitor was shot at and nearly escaped. It has been known for some time that Asbury was out at home dressed as a woman, and that he needed to carry out his threat.

The officers have made no effort to find him. A meeting of citizens was held last night and they resolved that if the criminal did not appear in the county they would have him hanged.

Gentry has a large circle of confederates and it is believed that a blood feud will exist between him and the county until the result when an approach is made on his part.

SHIPPING NEWS.

ATMANAC FOR TO-DAY.

Arrives. 6.30 (Sun. 6.28) (Mon. 6.10) 10
SUN WATER TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

Low Water TO-DAY.

RUN DOWN BY THE ALLER.

The Bark Enos Soule Wrecked
in the Harbor.

Beached on Governor's Island to Save Her from Sinking.

The North German Lloyd steamer Aller, which sailed this morning for Bremen, who proceeding down the bay about 10 o'clock and when off Liberty Island, ran into the bark Enos Soule, of Freeport, Me., Capt. Ballard.

The Soule was at anchor and was getting ready to be towed to her berth, the tug America being alongside.

The Aller struck her on, smashing the bark's bows, tearing away plumb, and all headgear. The Soule commenced to fill, and to save her from sinking the cable was shipped and she was towed to the west side of Governor's Island and beached.

The blow from the steamer was so heavy and sudden that the tow lines from the tug could not be broken off, and the stem of the tug was torn off, and the tug was nearly capsized.

The tug did not stop to see what damage was done, but continued on her voyage. The bark Soule arrived here on the 2d from Hong Kong, and was consigned to M. F. Pickering & Co.

The steamer Aller had on board a large number of Roman Catholic priests, who were on their way to Rome, where the first convention of the body will begin on April 15. They are also taking part in the ceremonies attending the laying of the corner-stone of the International Benevolent college of St. Anselm.

Among the pilgrims was the Right Rev. Bishop Leo Hald, D. D., O. S. B., of Montreal, N. C., the President of the congregation, the Right Rev. Leonard Schner, O. S. B., Arch-Bishop of St. Louis, the Right Rev. John Lockwood, O. S. B., of St. John's Abbey, Collegeville, Minn., the Right Rev. Innocent Wolf, O. S. B., of St. Joseph's Abbey, Albany, N. Y., the Right Rev. Benedict Moyses, O. S. B., of St. Bernard's Abbey, Cullman, Ala., and the Right Rev. Joseph Capelle, O. S. B., of St. Procopius, Independent Priory, Chicago.

Principals of the Aller were: Major Leonard Harbert, R. A. Major and Director and Mrs. Theo. Rosenfeld and family.

AUSTRALIAN BANK FAILURE.

The Commercial, at Melbourne, Suspended Payment To-Day.

MELBOURNE, April 4.—The Commercial Bank of Australia has suspended payment.
The shareholders have been summoned to consider proposals for the reconstruction of the bank.

The collapse has been expected for several days. The paid-up capital of the bank was £1,200,000, while the subscribed capital was £3,000,000. The reserve fund was £750,000.

The bank had a branch in London, and branches in Edinburgh, Glasgow and in all the principal cities and towns in Australia.

English Sportsmen Excluded from Austrian Meeting for Default.

VIENNA, April 4.—Two English sportsmen who have been following the Austrian races have been posted as defaulters in the sum of 200,000 florins by the Jockey Club here, and they have been excluded from all Austrian race meetings.

Among the defaulters posted are Alfred de Mysłowski, who owes 17,500 florins, and Baron Johann Uexy, who owes 330,000 florins. Both are well known in sporting circles.

Sailboat Capsizes at Amsterdam and Four Persons Are Drowned.

AMSTERDAM, April 4.—Several persons lost their lives last evening by the capsizing of a sailboat, in which a large party were on a pleasure excursion. The boat capsized and the excursionists were thrown into the water. Twelve of them were rescued in an exhausted condition, but four perished.

13 Persons Injured by Explosion in a Colliery in South Wales.

LONDON, April 4.—An explosion occurred to-day in the Nantmilly colliery, Aberdare, South Wales. No lives were lost. Thirteen persons were injured, none of them fatally.

WILLINGLY INTO THE TOMB.

A Russian Girl's Letter Explaining Her Suicide.

Sarah Muller, aged twenty, single, a native of Great Russia, died at a hotel in New York city on March 30, 1893, at the age of twenty-three, from the effects of a dose of carbolic acid, taken with suicidal intent. She came from Russia, where her father is said to be a wealthy army contractor, four months ago.

She suffered much from melancholia. This morning she got up at 5 o'clock, and an hour later asked for water, saying she was burning up inside.

Last night she wrote the following letter in Russian, which was found in her dress this morning:

"Sir: A woman without a character must not live in the world. I am willingly going to die, and I am willing to die with you. I only want to be able to live with you and to be able to die with you. I only want to be able to live with you and to be able to die with you."

DIDN'T INTEND TO SHOOT.

Judge's Excuse for Wounding a Man Who Couldn't Buy Drinks.

John Judge, a saloon-keeper at 632 Com-munitary avenue, Jersey City, was arraigned to-day in the Third District Police Court, before Justice Kimbrey, this morning on a charge of shooting a negro named Douglas Allen.

Allen, it is claimed, was one of a party playing pool in Judge's saloon last night. He lost a game and had no money to pay for the round of drinks, so Judge ordered him out, but Allen declined to leave. Judge then fired a shot at him, which hit him in the arm, the ball taking effect in the right arm.

The accused was held for the grand jury. He claimed that he did not intend to shoot.

Button's Debts May Exceed $300,000.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 4.—It developed yesterday that George Button's debts may exceed $300,000. He has a large debt in Baltimore secured by old city whiskey, and owes the Lawrenceburg Bank, of Lawrenceburg, Ky., $25,000, which is well secured. It is thought that when the collateral is sold there will be $10,000 or $15,000 left. The banks of this city are $25,000 of the various business receipts.

Death in a Newspaper Office Here.

BELLEVILLE, Ill., April 4.—The daily of the Arbiter Zeitung, a small German paper of Belleville, was burned out yesterday. August Schneider, a German street vendor aged fifty-six years, was cremated.

President Barker at War Again.

President Barker, of the Tax Department, has recovered sufficiently from his attack of illness to return to his duties. He was at his desk to-day for the first time in two weeks.

Send a Letter to Van Hout.

RICH MEN AS ROBBERS.

Mound City, Mo., Society Leaders Revealed as Masked Burglars.

Systematic Plan to Rob Stores by the Sons of Wealthy Citizens.

Chief of the Band Shot Dead in a Place They Entered at Night.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., April 4.—Edward Shellenberg, a merchant of Mound City, last night shot and almost instantly killed William Stebbins, the son of one of the wealthiest citizens of the town.

For the last six months almost nightly stores have been entered and the most valuable articles carried off. Sunday night Mr. Shellenberg decided to keep watch in his store.

About 11 o'clock the rear door was opened by means of a key and four masked men entered. As they reached the center of the store Shellenberg turned on the electric light and ordered them to throw up their hands.

Three of them did so, but the fourth started to run, when Shellenberg fired and the man dropped dead. The report attracted a crowd to the store and the dead man was unmasked first.

He proved to be one of the most prominent young men in the city. His three companions were all discovered to be equally as high in the social scale.
They were Walter Miller, Walter Child-tenden and Roscoe Carr.

They confessed to having committed all the robberies. Owing to their social position and the fact that the leader of the band was killed, the merchants who were robbed refused to prosecute them. His relatives have made good all the losses.

LONG ISLAND ELECTIONS.

Temperance Men Making a Strong Fight in Suffolk County.

The annual Spring elections are being held to-day in Queens and Suffolk counties. In most of the towns a tight vote is being polled.

In Queens County the Democrats expect to elect a majority of the Superior court judges, the members of the old board will probably be returned.
No election is being held in Long Island City.

In some of the towns of Suffolk County there are lively contests between the prohibition candidates and the regular nominees for Excise Commissioners. In Islip the temperance men are making a determined effort to elect an anti-license ticket.

In Suffolk County, with one or two exceptions, the old Board of Supervisors will be re-elected.

BROKER SPAGUE ARRESTED.

Charged with Running a Bucket-Shop at the Sturtevant.

Steven H. Sprague, aged thirty-six, of 118 West Thirty-fourth street, was arraigned in Jefferson Market Court this morning charged with violating the gambling laws in conducting a bucket shop.

Sprague runs a stock brokers' office at 1212 Broadway and at the Sturtevant place. His customers almost entirely are women.

Andrew Hammond, of 201 West Thirty-ninth street, an old Wall Street operator, visited Sprague's place in the Sturtevant yesterday and bought $50 worth of stock.

He then drew a small white, which
he had secreted in his clothing, and tossed it into the air. He then drew a small white, which he had secreted in his
clothing, and tossed it into the air.

He then drew a small white, which
he had secreted in his clothing, and
tossed it into the air. He then drew a small white, which he had secreted in his
clothing, and tossed it into the air.

He then drew a small white, which
he had secreted in his clothing, and
tossed it into the air. He then drew a small white, which he had secreted in his
clothing, and tossed it into the air.

He then drew a small white, which
he had secreted in his clothing, and
tossed it into the air. He then drew a small white, which he had secreted in his
clothing, and tossed it into the air.

He then drew a small white, which
he had secreted in his clothing, and
tossed it into the air. He then drew a small white, which he had secreted in his
clothing, and tossed it into the air.

He then drew a small white, which
he had secreted in his clothing, and
tossed it into the air. He then drew a small white, which he had secreted in his
clothing, and tossed it into the air.

He then drew a small white, which
he had secreted in his clothing, and
tossed it into the air. He then drew a small white, which he had secreted in his
clothing, and tossed it into the air.

He then drew a small white, which
he had secreted in his clothing, and
tossed it into the air. He then drew a small white, which he had secreted in his
clothing, and tossed it into the air.

He then drew a small white, which
he had secreted in his clothing, and
tossed it into the air. He then drew a small white, which he had secreted in his
clothing, and tossed it into the air.

He then drew a small white, which
he had secreted in his clothing, and
tossed it into the air. He then drew a small white, which he had secreted in his
clothing, and tossed it into the air.

He then drew a small white, which
he had secreted in his clothing, and
tossed it into the air. He then drew a small white, which he had secreted in his
clothing, and tossed it into the air.

He then drew a small white, which
he had secreted in his clothing, and
tossed it into the air. He then drew a small white, which he had secreted in his
clothing, and tossed it into the air.

He then drew a small white, which
he had secreted in his clothing, and
tossed it into the air. He then drew a small white, which he had secreted in his
clothing, and tossed it into the air.

He then drew a small white, which
he had secreted in his clothing, and
tossed it into the air. He then drew a small white, which he had secreted in his
clothing, and tossed it into the air.

Early Spring STYLES

French Percale
—SHIRTS—
Dots, Stripes and Figures.

Link Cuffs attached to Shirt.

White collars to be worn,
they are very swell and splendid value.

for $1.50 each.

DO YOU NEED
A SPRING OVERCOAT?

HACKETT, CARHART & CO.
Clothing and Furnishers.

Lower Store
Broadway near Chambers St.

Pepper and Whip for Him.

Postman Pichard's Wife Fined and Put Under Bonds.

They Tell of Their Marital Troubles in the Butler Street Court.

Louisa Pichard, the pretty and attractive wife of George L. Pichard, a New York letter-carrier, was put on trial in the Butler Street Police Court this morning on a charge of horse-whipping her husband, Walter Child-tenden and Roscoe Carr.

They confessed to having committed
all the robberies. Owing to their social position and the fact that the leader of the band was killed, the merchants
who were robbed refused to prosecute
them. His relatives have made good
all the losses.

He then drew a small white, which
he had secreted in his clothing, and
tossed it into the air. He then drew a small white, which he had secreted in his
clothing, and tossed it into the air.

He then drew a small white, which
he had secreted in his clothing, and
tossed it into the air. He then drew a small white, which he had secreted in his
clothing, and tossed it into the air.

He then drew a small white, which
he had secreted in his clothing, and
tossed it into the air. He then drew a small white, which he had secreted in his
clothing, and tossed it into the air.

He then drew a small white, which
he had secreted in his clothing, and
tossed it into the air. He then drew a small white, which he had secreted in his
clothing, and tossed it into the air.

He then drew a small white, which
he had secreted in his clothing, and
tossed it into the air. He then drew a small white, which he had secreted in his
clothing, and tossed it into the air.

He then drew a small white, which
he had secreted in his clothing, and
tossed it into the air. He then drew a small white, which he had secreted in his
clothing, and tossed it into the air.

He then drew a small white, which
he had secreted in his clothing, and
tossed it into the air. He then drew a small white, which he had secreted in his
clothing, and tossed it into the air.

He then drew a small white, which
he had secreted in his clothing, and
tossed it into the air. He then drew a small white, which he had secreted in his
clothing, and tossed it into the air.

He then drew a small white, which
he had secreted in his clothing, and
tossed it into the air. He then drew a small white, which he had secreted in his
clothing, and tossed it into the air.

He then drew a small white, which
he had secreted in his clothing, and
tossed it into the air. He then drew a small white, which he had secreted in his
clothing, and tossed it into the air.

He then drew a small white, which
he had secreted in his clothing, and
tossed it into the air. He then drew a small white, which he had secreted in his
clothing, and tossed it into the air.

He then drew a small white, which
he had secreted in his clothing, and
tossed it into the air. He then drew a small white, which he had secreted in his
clothing, and tossed it into the air.

He then drew a small white, which
he had secreted in his clothing, and
tossed it into the air. He then drew a small white, which he had secreted in his
clothing, and tossed it into the air.

He then drew a small white, which
he had secreted in his clothing, and
tossed it into the air. He then drew a small white, which he had secreted in his
clothing, and tossed it into the air.

He then drew a small white, which
he had secreted in his clothing, and
tossed it into the air. He then drew a small white, which he had secreted in his
clothing, and tossed it into the air.

He then drew a small white, which
he had secreted in his clothing, and
tossed it into the air. He then drew a small white, which he had secreted in his
clothing, and tossed it into the air.

He then drew a small white, which
he had secreted in his clothing, and
tossed it into the air. He then drew a small white, which he had secreted in his
clothing, and tossed it into the air.

He then drew a small white, which
he had secreted in his clothing, and
tossed it into the air. He then drew a small white, which he had secreted in his
clothing, and tossed it into the air.

He then drew a small white, which
he had secreted in his clothing, and
tossed it into the air. He then drew a small white, which he had secreted in his
clothing, and tossed it into the air.

He then drew a small white, which
he had secreted in his clothing, and
tossed it into the air. He then drew a small white, which he had secreted in his
clothing, and tossed it into the air.

Early Spring STYLES

French Percale
—SHIRTS—
Dots, Stripes and Figures.

Link Cuffs attached to Shirt.

White collars to be worn,
they are very swell and splendid value.